STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

PREAMBLE

The Australian Pacific College group (the College) is committed to the pursuit of excellence in learning, teaching and research, and to community engagement. This Code sets out the College’s expectations of students in respect of academic matters and personal behaviour and outlines the College’s responsibilities to students. Study at the College presents opportunities for interacting with other members of the College community. The College recognises and values the diversity of student experiences and expectations, and is committed to treating students, both academically and personally, in a fair and transparent manner. All students, in return, are required to comply with the requirements set down in this Code of Conduct.

The College reaffirms its commitment to:

● high academic standards, intellectual rigour and a high quality education;
● intellectual freedom and social responsibility;
● recognition of the importance of ideas and the pursuit of critical and open inquiry;
● tolerance, honesty and respect as the hallmarks of relationships throughout the College community;
● high standards of ethical behaviour.

This Code is based upon three basic principles of student conduct:

● an obligation to act with integrity in academic work, to ensure that all academic work is conducted ethically and safely
● an obligation to observe standards of equity and respect in dealing with every member of the College community
● an obligation to use and care for College resources in a lawful and appropriate manner, and to not diminish the College’s reputation in the carrying out of academic and other associated College activities.

All students are required to be aware of and act consistently with these values.

DEFINITIONS AND ACRONYMS

“College” means Australian Pacific College, English Unlimited and APC Design School.

“Student” means all students of the College

d) not engage in plagiarism or other academic misconduct;
e) act ethically and honestly in the preparation, conduct, submission of academic work, and during all forms of assessment, including formal examinations and informal tests;
f) conduct themselves in a manner conducive to the proper functioning of the College, which is dedicated to the pursuit of academic excellence;
g) actively participate in the learning process;

h) attend scheduled course teaching activities and submit assessment tasks on time, unless unforeseen or exceptional circumstances arise;

i) behave ethically, avoiding any action or behaviour that would unfairly disadvantage or advantage either themselves or another student;

j) behave professionally, ethically and respectfully in all dealings with the College’s learning partners during work placements and practicums;

k) read all official correspondence from the College, including email and SMS messages;

l) use College resources, including information and communication technology resources, in a lawful and ethical manner and for College purposes only, unless express permission has been granted for non-College or private usage.

2.4 College resources and reputation

Students are expected to:

a) use and care for all College resources in a lawful and ethical manner, mindful of the need for resources to be shared by all members of the College community;

b) ensure their actions or inactions as a student do not harm, or bring into disrepute, the College’s reputation or good standing;

c) not engage in behaviour that is detrimental to College property;

d) not participate in any learning activity, such as lectures or tutorials, while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs;

e) not use, possess or supply any prohibited drug, substance or weapon on campus;

f) not misuse College facilities in a manner which is unlawful or which will be detrimental to the rights and properties of others;

g) not use the College’s name, reputation or crest for private gain or the gain of a third party, or private business or commercial purposes, without prior permission;

h) not use College resources for private gain or the gain of a third party, or private business or commercial purposes, without prior permission;

i) not engage in any fraudulent or corrupt conduct.

NOTE: Student expectations and obligations are summarised in Table 1.

3. COLLEGE RESPONSIBILITIES

3.1 Learning, teaching and research

The College has responsibilities to ensure that students:
a) study in an academic environment which fosters student participation in rational debate and in which students can freely express alternative points of view;

b) are considered for selection into courses or programs on the basis of criteria that are valid, explicit, fair and reliable;

c) enrol in courses and programs of study that are of high standard, satisfy relevant professional requirements, are up-to-date and based on research, study and discourse in the discipline;

d) have reasonable access to appropriately qualified academic staff and academic and learning support services;

e) have reasonable access to materials, equipment and other resources to enable completion of academic courses;

f) receive timely, complete, clear and accurate information in relation to the content, objectives, cost and assessment tasks of courses, timely and appropriate feedback on assessment tasks, timely and appropriate information in relation to administrative procedures that apply to them;

g) can provide feedback on the teaching, learning and research environment;

h) study and work in a safe, harmonious, tolerant and productive academic environment.

3.2 The College experience

The College has responsibilities to ensure that students:

a) are treated with courtesy, tolerance and respect as valued members of the college community;

b) participate in the decision-making processes of the College;

c) are treated fairly, impartially and consistently in all aspects of College policy, procedures and practice;

d) are treated equitably, free from all forms of unlawful discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment;

e) have reasonable access to support services if experiencing personal, academic or disability related difficulties;

f) have reasonable access to records held about them;

g) receive respect and protection of their privacy;

h) can complain about an academic or administrative decision that affects them if there are grounds for believing that the decision may have been made on inappropriate criteria;

i) can lodge a complaint or appeal without fear of victimisation and with assurance that the matter will be treated seriously, expeditiously and sensitively having due regard to procedural fairness and confidentiality.
4. STUDENT MISCONDUCT

There may be occasions when a student’s conduct is a cause of concern in relation to the safety of that student, staff or other students. Such concerns should be referred to the Principal Academic Director or the Campus Director/Campus Manager who will arrange for assistance to be provided to the student concerned if considered warranted and in the best interests of the student.

4.1 Procedural Fairness

a) The College is committed to the principles of procedural fairness and natural justice. This includes:
   i) the presumption of innocence unless guilt is freely admitted or proved by clear and convincing evidence
   ii) the right to be heard
   iii) the right to be treated without bias iv) the right to be informed of allegations being made and to be provided with an opportunity to respond to these
   v) the right to be given reasons for any decision.

b) The student shall be given an opportunity to correct information, explain mitigating circumstances and make a submission as to the penalty/ies that may be imposed.

c) No member of staff can make a determination on a misconduct matter if he or she has had prior involvement in any aspect of the allegation.

d) Students are entitled to due notice of any allegations of student misconduct made against them. Allegations may be amended at any time before their determination, provided the student has received notice.

e) Knowledge that a student has been found guilty of a past misconduct offence shall not be taken into consideration when determining guilt relating to the current allegation.

f) The College takes multiple breaches of the Student Code of Conduct seriously. Knowledge that a student has been found guilty of a past misconduct offence will be taken into account when determining the penalty/ies to be imposed.

g) If multiple allegations of a similar nature come to light at the same time, these can be considered as one allegation if the Principal Academic Director/Campus Director believes that is appropriate in the circumstances.

h) The standard of proof used in determining misconduct matters is whether the Principal Academic Director/Campus Director, after evaluating the evidence presented, believes it is more likely than not that the allegation against the student has been justified.
i) The College is committed to investigating and determining allegations of student misconduct as expeditiously as is practical recognising that a student can be significantly affected by delay in the resolution of the matter. A specified time period may be extended at the discretion of the Principal Academic Director/Campus Director.

j) The Procedure for dealing with Allegations of Misconduct is as follows:
NOTE: An appeal by the student can be based on one or more of the following:

- lack of procedural fairness in the investigation process conducted by the College;
- that the determination was manifestly unreasonable or cannot be supported having regard to the evidence;
- provision of new evidence not available to the student or Principal Academic Director/Campus Director at the time of the original investigation.

NOTE: Penalties for misconduct are summarised in Table 2
